

T. Sloan Associates

Mr. Sloan has over 30 years of providing engineering and leadership in the field of facility management for several major educational institutions in Michigan, along with an extensive background in new construction and renovation. During the late 70's / mid 80's, Mr. Sloan was a part time consultant with Michigan School Business Officials in the area of energy conservation providing in-services and building energy audits to school districts across the state.